The Canaanite Woman

When God is Silent

February 6, 2008

Introduction

There may be times in your life when it seems like God does not hear your prayer. You feel you cannot get a prayer through, nor can you hear His voice. You know His Word says, to "Ask, Seek, and Knock", but it seems like every door is slammed in your face. What do you do when you don't know what to do? Where do you go when there is no hope for your situation? Where can you turn? Let's take a look at the Canaanite woman who teaches us what to do when God is silent.

Outline

- 1) An Unethical Request
